

This year we are thrilled to have the BlueCross BlueShield traveling Button Chair at our Tickled Pink events. The chair was created as a tribute to all the women who have battled breast cancer in North Carolina. Each button on the chair has been given by either the family of a victim or by a survivor of breast cancer, and each represents a very powerful personal story. The Button Chair travels across the state to raise awareness and funds for the fight against cancer.

In 2008 more than 40,000 North Carolinians were diagnosed with cancer. Behind every diagnosis there is a story.

We are excited to have Angela Bendorf Jamison join us at Tickled Pink to share her story. In 1998 Angela was diagnosed with inflammatory breast cancer and was treated at UNC Lineberger.

At the same time, author Jeffrey Zaslow was writing The Girls from Ames, a New York Times best seller about Angela and her 10 best friends. Angela will share her story of survival and how friends can uplift and sustain you through the most difficult of times.

We hope you will join us to celebrate the stories of all who have been touched by cancer.

Proceeds from Tickled Pink 2009 will benefit the Patient and Family Resource Center at the new NC Cancer Hospital.
