

CULTIVATING MENTORS

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
Graduate Education

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW WHAT TO EXPECT

In this workshop series, developed in partnership with UNC's IMSD, participants will analyze a pair of complementary videos - realistic scenarios based on research and the real lived experiences of our colleagues here at UNC - and discuss strategic mentoring practices designed to establish and contribute to a culture in which all members thrive and next generation leaders are nurtured.

LUNCH PROVIDED! WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

JUNE 7 (12-2:30PM)

Location: 6004 Marsico Hall

Workshop One: Critical Feedback

JUNE 14 (12-2:30PM)

Location: 6004 Marsico Hall

Workshop Two: Conflict Resolution:

JUNE 28 (12-2:30PM)

Location: 6004 Marsico

Workshop Three: Communicating

Expectations

WORKSHOP ONE

Focuses on giving and receiving critical feedback. Where does expertise lie? How do we handle the mistakes of others, or even our own?

WORKSHOP TWO

Focuses on conflict resolution. How do we use our authority? What does silence actually say? When is it our responsibility to intervene, and how?

WORKSHOP THREE

Focuses on communicating expectations. How do we identify and establish a specific, healthy work culture in our lab environments?

For more information, email: BERNARD_WEISSMAN@MED.UNC.EDU